Notes to Editors:

Gemfields plc is the world's leading supplier of responsibly sourced coloured gemstones and is listed on the AIM market of the London Stock Exchange (ticker: GEM) where it is a constituent of the AIM50 index.

Gemfields is the 75% owner and operator of the Kagem emerald mine in Zambia, the world's single largest producing emerald mine. In July 2009, Gemfields commenced a formal auction programme for Zambian emeralds mined at the Kagem emerald mine. To date, the Company has held 19 auctions of rough emerald and beryl produced at Kagem and which have generated revenues totalling US$360 million. The Company has also placed traded rough gemstones (not obtained directly from the Company's own mining operations) on offer to its customers at some of its auctions which have generated revenues of US$23.6 million.

Gemfields owns 75% of the Montepuez Ruby Mine in Mozambique. The four rough ruby and corundum auctions held since June 2014 have generated US$122 million in aggregate revenues.

Gemfields holds a 50% interest in the Kariba amethyst mine in Zambia. In September 2015, Gemfields held its third auction of rough amethyst extracted from Kariba amethyst mine, generating revenues of US$0.44 million.

The Company also owns additional mining licenses in Zambia as well as controlling interests in prospecting licenses in Colombia, Ethiopia, Madagascar and Sri Lanka.

Gemfields also owns 100% of the Fabergé brand. Fabergé provides Gemfields with direct control over a high-end luxury goods platform and a global brand with exceptional heritage.
